DR. AMY ARCHER LEAVING CHIEF MEDICAL OFFICER POST

Focusing on the Patient After Overseeing Mountain Family's Shift to Integrated Care

Chief Medical Officer Dr. Amy Archer is stepping down from her post this summer, after leading Mountain Family's shift towards integrated care. Dr. Archer joined Mountain Family in March 2015, and oversaw the growth of integrated medical and behavioral care, the expansion of quality improvement, and many changes and improvements to site provider leadership. That included expanding Behavioral Health into its own department and nearly doubling Mountain Family's Integrated Care/Care Coordination program.

DATA DOCTOR: ‘TIS THE SEASON FOR HEALTH FAIRS
Compare What’s Offered with What Screenings Are Recommended for You
By Dr. Chris Tonozzi, MD, Director of Data Quality

Health fairs are almost as American as apple pie and baseball, and the idea that there is a large sector of our population getting access to low cost preventive services each spring is a laudable goal. But as with most things, the devil is in the details. We need to consider whether we are providing the right services at our health fairs.

HONORING OUR DONORS: THE BASALT INTEGRATED HEALTH CENTER CAMPAIGN
Building Health for All
By Garry Schalla, Development Director

In April, Aspen Skiing Company and its employees contributed a generous challenge grant to inspire others to come forward to support Building Health for All: The Basalt Integrated Health Center Campaign. They join Pitkin County, Aspen Valley Hospital, The Colorado Health Foundation and Caring for Colorado, with our generous individual donors as our current partners in building the Basalt Integrated Health Center.

Mountain Family Health Centers has a long history of ensuring access to health care for the most vulnerable among us. We envision a future in which all persons have access to the affordable, high quality, integrated primary medical, behavioral and dental health care they need for optimal health. To accomplish this, Mountain Family is expanding our Basalt Health Center to meet the high need for these services in the community. The Building Health for All campaign will provide the funding to make this vision a reality, and we invite you to partner with us in this endeavor.
