Fundraising Continues

By Garry Schalla, Development Director

The total cost for the relocation and expansion of the new Basalt Integrated Health Center is $3.4 million. This project is a community partnership, with Pitkin County, Aspen Valley Hospital and many generous donors. Donors include the Aspen Skiing Company - Caring for Community Fund, The Colorado Health Foundation, Alpenglow Foundation and the Betty Jane Schuss Fund at the Aspen Community Foundation contributing $1.2 million to the project so far. Mountain Family's goal is to raise $2.2 million in additional funding by May 31st, 2019.

Your Donation Goes Further On Colorado Gives Day

By Garry Schalla, Development Director

Please give where you live and support us on Tuesday, December 4th during Colorado Gives Day. This 24-hour movement is a chance to increase the value of your donation, thanks to the $1 million Incentive Fund. Created by Community First Foundation and FirstBank, the fund increases the value of every dollar donated proportionally.

GRAND OPENING FAST APPROACHING

New Basalt Integrated Health Center Opens January 7th

By Garry Schalla, Development Director

The new Basalt Integrated Health Center grand opening is January 7th, 2019 and is getting closer every day. Crews from Roche Constructors are painting exam rooms, laying flooring, installing cabinets, and are on track to turn the finished space over to Mountain Family in early December. Mountain Family teams will then install medical equipment and supplies in time to provide services for our first patients at our new home on January 7th.

TESTIMONIAL: GREG POSCHMAN

In Their Own Words

"The physical and mental health of all citizens is the foundation of our community happiness and of our local economy. Mountain Family Health Centers provides primary medical, dental and behavioral health services that keep our seniors, our students, their parents, i.e. our workforce, vibrant and productive, especially when well-being becomes too costly elsewhere. Join and support Mountain Family Health Centers for a strong community. It's up to us to handle the rising cost of healthcare, and Mountain Family Health Centers is our local solution." - Pitkin County Commissioner, Greg Poschman
